summer vacation, arrange to

The Republican the big reliable every day in the year paper.

MINE POET HERE—Ned White who is known as the Poet of the Mines, is in the city on business. Mrs.
White and the family accompany the talented one.

COMMISSION GOES NORTH—The members of the tax commission are spending a few days in Mohave and Yavapai counties. The object of the visit is to confer with the boards of equalization of those counties.

HOME TODAY—Governor Hunt will return today from Benson where he went Wednesday with the other members of the board of control for the purpose of attending to the business connected with awarding contracts for supplies for the industrial school for the coming term.

HARRIS IS BUSY—The busiest man about the capital these days is Adjutant General Charles W. Harris, who just now is engaged in indexing the militia code bill for the use of the cartographers commands throughout the state.
As the bill contains 142 sections and deals with every phase of the militia organization it is evident that the task is no slight one. The adjutant general is endeavoring to get through with this work so it can be issued as a general order prior to the beginning of the summer encampment at Fort Huachuca August 2.

WIRE ASSESSMENTS—The work of assessing the property of the telegraph and telephone companies doing business in Arizona has been completed by the state tax commission. The valuation is slightly less than three quarters of a million dollars. To be exact it is $705,225.51. Valuations have now been received from all the large public service corporations and a considerable part of the tabulating and classifying has been done by the commission. There is yet, of course, a vast amount of detail to be accomplished and most of the work to be done in conjunction with the county boards of equalization is yet to be performed.

be held at The Republican office until the owner claims it.

will attend the exercises and witness the maneuvers. The day following will occur the annual sham battle.

CREME DE MENTHE AGAIN— word regarding the performance of his horse Creme de Menthe which Breezy driving. Anna B., another valley horse, took second money at Perry, Ills.

was taken to the family burying ground at Hutchinson, Kansas. The will be held on the plaza from 7 to 8 Sunday evening. Rev. W. R. Thornton, pastor of the Methodist church good singing. It is believed the attendance will be larger than the last Sunday evening though it was excellent then for the first evening.

A cordial welcome is extended to the general public.

A CENTURY PLANT—It is not every day that one may see a century plant in bloom but that sight may be had now at the residence of W. E. Thomas, clerk of the superior court at his residence on North Central avenue. The plant was set out by Mr. Thomas twenty-three years ago and this is the first time it has bloomed. While perhaps, these plants bloom more frequently than once in a hundred years, it is certain that it is a long time between bloomings.

its meeting at 8 o'clock, immediately following the union service on the plaza. Members and friends of the church will plan to be present at the 11 o'clock hour since there will be no preaching service in the evening at the church, on account of the union service on the plaza. Welcome.

END VISIT—Misses Alice and Nancy Knowles who have been staying with friends in Phoenix for some time past concluded their visit and departed for home last night.

JOY REIGNS SUPREME—Eddie Lynch, an important functionary of the Hotel Adams, resort for millionaires and plain people alike, has had a lot of joy in his day but he is just now experiencing the sort of pleasure that only comes to a man once in a life time, namely the arrival of the first baby in the family.
He shares his happiness with Mrs.
Lynch of course but all rank outsiders are barred from anything more than feeling good because Eddie does, but that is worth something in a public place where sunshine is ineffective has to be more or less spontaneous. It is a boy of course, and of regulation requirements and possibilities with just as good a chance of becoming president as anybody else and a far better one than some of the fellows who have worn themselves to a frazzle chasing the job. But if he is never able to be president and can take orders over the mahogany as affably, successfully and satisfactorily to all concerned as his accomplished father, he will be going some.

TREASURES SOLD AT AUCTION

Sixteenth Century Andirons from John Taylor Collection Brought $48,300.

LONDON—The sale of the great art collection of the late John Taylor began at Christie's recently, when the bronzes were disposed of. Some of them brought fifty times the sum Mr. Taylor paid.

The total realized by the day's sale was $200,000.

A pair of large Venetian Sixteenth Century andirons was bought for $48,- 300 by a private collector whose name is kept secret.

The andirons are thirty-five inches high and are surmounted by statuettes of Apollo and Mercury, standing on octagonal plinths, supported by tall pedestals formed as caryatid female figures.

425 Riccio's "Andromeda," a 9-inch female figure, finely modeled, slightly draped and seated on a rock, and at one corner of the plinth a conch shell to form an inkstand.

They also gave $18,375 for a rare diptrych in "intarsia" frame, opening fifteen inches and ten inches high.
It is of Milanese workmanship, probably about 1400. The wings are each divided into six compartments, pierced a four, and minutely carved with scenes from the life of Christ.
It was exhibited in the South Kensington Museum in 1862, and was obtained by Mr. Taylor from the collection of George Field in 1892.

Four other lots went to the same purchasers for $18,275 each. One was the wonderful Riccio inkstand designed as a celestial sphere, with the sun and stars in low relief on matted ground, upon the top a nude figure of a boy, the lower half chiseled with acanthus foliage. The sphere itself is supported by a crouching figure of Atlas. This inkstand was acquired from the Soltzer collection in 1893.
